THE LIVER.

THE symtoms of Liver Com-plaint, are uneasiness and pain in the side. Sometimes pain in the shoulder, and is mistaken for Rheumatism. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness, bowels in general costive, some-times alternate with lax. The head is troubled with pain, and dull, LIVER panied with painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. Often complaining of weakness, debility, and low spirits. Sometimes some of the above symtoms attend the disease, and at other times very few of them; but the Liver is generally the organ most involved. Cure the Liver with Simmons' Regulator and all will be well.
